

Baylor University®

ROBBINS COLLEGE OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SCIENCES

General Family and Consumer Sciences Minor 2019-2020

The Minor General Family and Consumer Sciences requires 19 semester hours.

A. FCS 1104 New Student Seminar in Family and Consumer Sciences

B. One course from each of the following sections is required:

- i. ADM 1300 Fashion Theory and Consumer Behavior or
ADM 1311 Apparel Design Construction or
ADM 1391 Introduction to the Apparel Industry

- ii. NUTR 1401 Introduction to Food Science or
NUTR 2351 Nutrition or
NUTR 3314 Consumer Nutrition

- iii. FCS 1231 Design and Creative Technologies or
ID 1332 Introduction to Interior Design or
ID 3313 Histories of Interiors I or
ID 4313 History of Interiors II

- iv. CFS 1315 Development of Individual and Family Relationships or
CFS 2355 Child Development or
CFS 4356 The Family: A Global Perspective

C. Choose 9 semester hours from junior and senior level (ADM, CFS, FCS, ID, or NUTR) courses in the Family and Consumer Sciences department. All prerequisites must be taken for upper-level courses.

D. A grade of “C” is required for all courses in the minor.

Contact Information:

Dr. Nicole McAninch, Clinical Associate Professor in Family and Consumer Sciences
Nicole_McAninch@baylor.edu