

Intrauniversity Dance Minor 2020-2021

The Intrauniversity Dance Minor is available to majors in all disciplines and is designed for students with previous dance training who wish to continue the pursuit of their interests within the context of their university studies. Students will study intermediate/advanced technique/theory, dance history/pedagogy, and the creative process of performance production as well as complete a dance practicum. This minor supports and enriches opportunities in music/music education, theatre arts choreography, public/private teaching professions, various professional performance opportunities, and sponsorship of drill team/cheerleader organizations.

The Intrauniversity Dance Minor requires 19-23 semester hours.
